

Pseudoholomorphic curves in symplectic geometry

Prof. Sushmita Venugopalan, IMSc.

The talk will start with an introduction to the field of "Symplectic geometry". We will see the statement and the proof outline of Gromov's non-squeezing theorem, which is one of the most important results in the field. Via the proof of this result, we will see the role played by holomorphic curves in studying symplectic manifolds.